

RAIL STRIKE SITUATION BECOMES TENSE

IMPRESSION GAINED NEW MOVE PLANNED BY ADMINISTRATION

Thought Government Cannot Permit Break-down of Commerce Arteries to Continue—
President Assured He has Authority for Decisive Action—Two Courses Are Open

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 24.—While on the surface concrete developments in the railroad strike were lacking in Washington today, the impression gained in official circles was that the situation was being rapidly "shaken down" to a point where a new move by the administration could be expected.

Cabinet members who discussed the situation invariably declared President Harding was in personal charge of the "question" and also there was more than the belief that the cabinet would be called upon to consider it at the regular session tomorrow, no information was forthcoming as to the manner in which the transportation situation would be laid before the members.

Further evidence was obtained that some of the chief executive's advisers have urged that the government can permit the breakdown of the country's arteries of commerce to go no further while waiting for the railroad managements and shippers to dispose of their differences.

FIGHT MADE TO CUT DUTIES ON COARSE WOOLS

Lenroot Launches
Move in Committee
and Backs Stand

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 24.—Failing to get action from the senate finance committee majority, Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, launched today in the senate a fight to limit to sixty percent the duties on the wool produced in the raw and the manufactured state.

His proposal met with sharp opposition from spokesmen for the committee and senators engaged in the production of wool and were frequent, and at times, sharp exchanges.

Warning his Republican colleagues that the 33 cents a pound duty proposed would result in an increase in the cost of woolen clothing, Senator Lenroot declared the Republicans would have difficulty in justifying to the people in the large cities proper protective duties for the wool producers, but that they could not justify "this enormous equivalent of a 137 percent" on wool of a kind not produced in this country any appreciable extent.

There was a sharp dispute between Chairman McCumber of the finance committee and Senator Lenroot of Utah, ranking Republican, as to whether the committee majority had agreed to any reductions in the ad valorem duties generally proposed. Senator Lenroot, who is in charge of the bill, said the committee had agreed to a 50 percent reduction. Shouting that cuts had been agreed upon, Senator McCumber produced one amendment, proposing a five percent reduction in the ad valorem duty in one paragraph of the schedules and immediately offered it to the senate. Later he announced that simultaneous reductions in the ad valorem Senator Lenroot's bill was referred today to a judiciary subcommittee headed by Senator Cummins, Republican, Iowa, which will begin hearings Thursday. Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, and his predecessors in office, former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer and Francis B. Garvin, the latter now president of the Chemical Foundation, are to be among the early witnesses.

Senator Lodge's Stand
It was also announced that Senator Underwood's bill had been referred to the state department for an opinion. Senator Lodge advising the senate that the department was negotiating with Germany for a treaty to establish a joint claims commission. Senator Lodge added that he would not favor giving such a commission power to decide if Germany was bound to pay American claims but the commission, he said, should only fix the amounts due.

This was opposed by Senator Underwood, who said he favored an American commission to fix American claims.

Chicago Coal Prices Soar as Supply Drops

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 24.—With the price of coal still soaring in Chicago and the city's supply reduced to an estimate of 40,000 tons of anthracite coal, Illinois Operators' association members said today there was no hope of immediate re-opening of the Illinois mines.

After a meeting of the association, President Miller said all of re-opening the mines had been abandoned. Nothing short of federal law and the suspension of Official reports have been received it is known, giving details of the extent to which the strike has been responsible for the almost total "blanketing" of the healthy business revival in the United States and while instances of direct interference with the United States mails lately have been conspicuously absent, postal inspectors today recorded the further annulment of important mail trains.

Some administration advisers who favor a drastic move by the government are known to hold their view that President Harding should demand that the railroad executives make every effort to restore interstate commerce, especially to the extent of abandoning their stand on the seniority issue, while upon the disputeants would be expected to come together on the matter of fair living wage for railroad employees.

Has Full Authority
The president, it is understood has been assured by his advisers that his authority for decisive action, without recourse to congress is without question.

Two courses would be open to him, in order physically to operate the railroads, it was said. First, he could request the strikers to return to work under the government operation at the old wage scale with seniority rights restored. If this failed then federal troops could be called upon to assure operation of the trains.

There is little disposition in government circles to consider meeting emergency by actually putting the lines under government operation.

SAILORS AND COOKS VOTE FOR STRIKE
CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 24.—Strike ballots of the Cleveland Local of the Sailors, Cooks and Stewards and Firemen, Oilers and Water-tenders Unions, Great Lakes Division of the International Seamen's Union counted today, showed that the sailors voted 867 to 2 for a strike, and the cooks and stewards voted 504 to 7 for a strike.

The vote was against a further wage cut this year.

duties in a number of paragraphs had been made by the committee. Senator McCumber informed the senate that the committee was trying to "whittle the wool schedule down to the bone" taking into consideration proper protection for the whole industry and that it was seeking and acting upon the very latest information available about conditions in that industry.

The state mining laws by the governor could start work in the mines, Mr. Miller said.

The railroad strike has complicated matters further and an acute coal shortage during the coming winter is predicted by the operators.

"Half of the retail coal dealers have no coal in their yards," Mr. Miller said, "and a large number of essential industries are down to three weeks supplies. It is up to the government to act quickly."

MOVE TO PRESS COLLECTION OF DAMAGE CLAIMS

Prompt Payment is Wanted from Germany and Austria

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 24.—Republican and Democratic senators today joined in demands for prompt payment of American damage claims against Germany and Austria but differed as to procedure during three hours debate of the bill of Senator Underwood, Democratic leader, which proposed an American claims commission.

Senator Lodge, Republican leader, indicated he favored a joint claims commission. He agreed with Senator Underwood that property seized by the alien property custodian probably would be used to pay American damages, but such a method of payment was opposed by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana.

Underwood Defends Bill
The discussion was opened by Senator Underwood with a statement in support of his bill in which he incidentally denied charges of fraud in connection with acquisition by the chemical foundation of 5,000 German chemical patents, now the basis of a government suit. Wide discussion of the chemical foundation affairs was precipitated, Chairman Nelson of the judiciary committee attacking Senator Underwood's position and charging that the foundation was spreading propaganda while Senator Underwood declared that the foundation was an eleemosynary concern with profits limited and designed to develop American chemistry.

The Underwood bill was referred today to a judiciary subcommittee headed by Senator Cummins, Republican, Iowa, which will begin hearings Thursday. Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, and his predecessors in office, former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer and Francis B. Garvin, the latter now president of the Chemical Foundation, are to be among the early witnesses.

Senator Lodge's Stand
It was also announced that Senator Underwood's bill had been referred to the state department for an opinion. Senator Lodge advising the senate that the department was negotiating with Germany for a treaty to establish a joint claims commission. Senator Lodge added that he would not favor giving such a commission power to decide if Germany was bound to pay American claims but the commission, he said, should only fix the amounts due.

This was opposed by Senator Underwood, who said he favored an American commission to fix American claims.

STRIKE-BREAKERS OBJECT TO FOOD

(By The Associated Press)
DANVILLE, Ill., July 24.—The twenty-one strike breakers who left a Wabash train here in a strike against food conditions, after spending a day in the police station where they were fed by a committee of striking C. & E. I. shippers were tonight sent to Decatur. It was stated that they would be put to work in the Wabash round house there. A peculiar feature of the incident was a statement issued by the strike-breakers thanking the striking shippers and police who fed them.

Public Good Demands Speedy Settlement Present Strikes

Opinion Expressed by President of Illinois Miners—Also That Rail Strike Should be Settled First So Roads Would be in Position to Move Coal When Mining is Resumed

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 24.—Public welfare, Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Miners declared today, demands a speedy settlement of the coal and rail strikes. "Immediate adjustment of the rail strike should come before settlement of the coal strike, that all railroad forces may move coal as soon as the miners begin work," he said.

Mr. Farrington was not optimistic over settlement of the coal strike.

"I see no reason," he averred, "of changing my opinion of April 1, when I said this strike would be settled by either one of two methods—separate district agreements or government intervention."

It was reported today from Springfield that operators in that section were preparing to re-open their mines. Regarding this Mr. Farrington said "I do not believe the operators of Illinois will attempt to work their mines with non union miners. They know it can't be done."

"At this time," he continued, "I know of no movement for separate agreement between the Illinois miners and operators. But the miners of Illinois have assured me that they prefer a separate district agreement to government operation."

President Farrington will meet with the Illinois miners' executive board at St. Louis next Wednesday. Only routine matters to be discussed, he said.

Coincident with Mr. Farrington's arrival in Chicago came a meeting of Illinois operators. No statement was forthcoming from them after their conference.

ERECT STADIUM TO HONOR ROOSEVELT

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 24.—A stadium to be named for Theodore Roosevelt and devoted to spreading among the alien born the gospel of Americanism as the former president taught is to be erected on the lower East side where Hester Street meets Essex, President Schlacht of the Downtown Chamber of Commerce announced today.

Mr. Schlacht, formerly welfare commissioner on Ellis Island, said he had arranged to use illuminating signs to teach immigrants their A B C's. Other educational work thru use of electric black boards is contemplated for the stadium which, with movies, music and speech will pound away on Roosevelt's idea of "one country, one flag, one language."

ONE WHOLE REGION VAST DISTILLERY

(By The Associated Press)
NOME, Alaska, July 24.—The Northwestern Siberia coast from Anadyr north to the Arctic is in a state of chaos as a result of the manufacture by the Eskimos of raw alcohol, which they drink as fast as it can be made, according to a special dispatch from the Siberian correspondent of the Nome Nugget.

"The whole region is a vast distillery," says the correspondent who adds that 75 children have died recently from lack of food and medical attention, and that the older natives are "drinking, fighting and killing each other in their orgies."

The Hudson Bay company steamer Bay Chimo left Nome last night for Anadyr, carrying miscellaneous supplies including medicines.

NOVA SCOTIA MINERS THREATENING STRIKE

(By The Associated Press)
SYDNEY, N. S., July 24.—A strike of 12,000 coal miners in Nova Scotia set for August 15, may be called tomorrow, union leaders declaring today that only an immediate settlement of wage differences between operators and coal handlers at the international piers will avert the walkout.

Washington, July 24.—R. R. McMahon, of West Virginia, was nominated today by President Harding to be solicitor of the treasury.

NEW FEATURES MARK PROGRESS OF RAIL TIEUP

Move on Foot for Formation of Several New Unions

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 24.—The averting of a strike of approximately 10,000 station agents, preparations for the formation of a separate peace on the Baltimore and Ohio, marked the progress today of the railway shopmen's strike.

The move for new unions to take the place of the striking shop crafts was initiated by L. F. Loree, eastern regional chairman of the Association of Railway Executives and was taken as an indication of the intention of the roads to hold out against the strikers' demand for a return of seniority rights as preliminary to any settlement.

Mr. Loree's Plan
The eastern roads, according to Mr. Loree, plan to take advantage of rulings by the labor board by organizing new shopmen in such a way that each system will have its own union and will be able to negotiate separately with its men.

Farleys for a separate peace, due tomorrow at Baltimore between representatives of the striking shopmen and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad attracted considerable attention in union circles, but strike leaders refused to make any comment.

Prevents More Walkouts
The efforts of W. L. McMenimen, labor member of the rail board, today prevented a further spread of the strike in a conference with W. J. Noone, head of the station agents organization. Mr. Noone complained that the station agents were being forced to do the work of the strikers but Mr. McMenimen gave him such assurances that any grievances would be corrected, that he afterward announced that the station agents would remain at work pending a conference with the labor board.

Comparatively few outbreaks due to the strike were reported during the day but further cancellation of traffic, said to be due mostly to the shortage of coal, were reported from various sections.

The Grand Trunk took off two trains between Chicago and Detroit and two between Chicago and Harvey.

FEDERAL INJUNCTION GOES BY AIRPLANE

(By The Associated Press)
CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, July 24.—With a federal injunction against Chicago, Rock Island & Milwaukee strikers on its way here by airplane, and federal deputy marshals replacing deputy sheriffs as guards of the local shops the strike situation assumed alarming proportions here tonight.

The injunction from Judge Scott in federal court at Sioux City enjoins officers, members and sympathizers of the six federated shop crafts from placing more than one picket at a post.

Shots fired in the vicinity of the yards led railroad officials to believe serious trouble was brewing and requested M. L. Healy deputy marshal to swear in additional marshals. After a telephonic communication with Marshal Fred Davis at Sioux City, Healy proceeded to swear in additional federal marshals. Others will be sworn if necessary.

Designed to Insure Distribution to Utilities, Railroads and Other Necessary Consumers and Maintain Fair Prices—Plan Declared by Attorney General to Be Entirely Legal

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 24.—Agreement upon the principles of Secretary Hoover's plan for protecting essential industries and the public in the face of an impending coal shortage was reached at a meeting today of representatives of the interstate commerce commission, the departments of justice and commerce, operators from the producing fields of six states, and the American Railway Association.

Mr. Hoover's plan designed to insure fuel distribution to railroads, public utilities and other necessary consumers and the maintenance of fair prices thru preferential allocation of freight cars, was declared today by Attorney General Daugherty in an opinion to be entirely legal and in violation of "no law of the United States."

The emergency program as now drawn was submitted tonight to the conference of nearly 100 producing operators which met with Secretary Hoover. The commerce secretary stated that while the plan had been agreed upon in principle a great deal more work would be required on the subject of the organization of local committees to administer its provisions and after discussion by the operators' conference it would be necessary to re-submit the scheme to the department of justice and the interstate commerce commission.

Comprehensive Plan
The proposed emergency program, Mr. Hoover declared, "was very well outlined, by Mr. Daugherty in his opinion attesting the legality of the plan."

"As I understand it," Mr. Daugherty said, "your plan is to form an association acting under your directions whose sole purpose will be to meet the emergency in distribution and stop profiteering and at the proper time you intend to apply to the interstate commerce commission to promulgate rules governing car distribution during the existing shortage, to the end that the available equipment can be placed at mines affording the greatest opportunity to service and willing to charge for its coal no more than is fair and just."

Price Governed
"As between two mines whose output is the same, your plan contemplates, during the existing shortage, favoring the mine in the supply of cars which charges the public fair prices as against the mine which allows its need to exact whatever can be obtained, however unwarranted and extortionate the price may be. You have no purpose other than to promote the welfare of the public by inaugurating a plan of distribution designed to maintain national life itself and to restrain extortion by the stern hand of repression. Your idea is to have both operators and miners furnish you with statistics along the lines just mentioned, thus enabling you to place before the commission from time to time whatever information is necessary to enable it to give proper and intelligent directions."

Legality of Plan
"In thus acting you intend to represent the commission as one of its designated agencies or go to before it in any other capacity which ever method meets with its approval. In view of all these conditions causing the president (Continued on Page Four.)

Boy Believed Locked In Box Car and Lost

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 24.—Many telegrams were sent westward today in an attempt to intercept a box car in which Francis Dennison, 14, is believed to have been locked Saturday after being seized with a desire to see the world. The boy's parents, who believe that for two days he has been without food or water today appealed to police and railroad officials to attempt to trace the car and liberate the lad in time to save his life. The car is said to be included in a Union Pacific train bound for Casper, Wyo.

While Francis was playing with several other boys in the railroad yards near his home Saturday, he proposed a trip around the globe, they said. While they discussed the project as they sat in the doorway of an empty box car, a switchman appeared and all the boys except Francis took flight. Francis they said hid in the car. The switchman, unaware of the lad's presence, locked the door and a few minutes later the train pulled out the boys said.

PEACE TREATY MANDATES ARE NOW APPROVED

Balfour Outlines Britain's Future Policy
in Palestine

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, July 24.—The mandates created under the peace treaties were given final seal of approval by the council of the league of nations at its last sitting this afternoon.

M. Viviani of France, referred to the council's action as a solemn accomplishment for the league and one full of significance and historic interest.

In an eloquent but restrained address the Earl of Balfour outlined Great Britain's future policy in Palestine, which he said would be one of strict impartiality and justice in which all traditional rights, sentiments and religious feelings of the different racial groups would be respected and held inviolate. He predicted great material prosperity, rapid advancement and fuller privileges for the Arabs and others under the new regime. He was confident that the establishment of a Jewish national home would not be antagonistic to or incompatible with their interests.

Advance Spiritual Interest
Indeed, he was sure the spiritual interests of all elements of the population would be incalculably advanced under the new administration and he pleaded earnestly that all should forget the past with its racial animosities and prejudices and should strive loyally for the peace, prosperity and common good of the whole country.

"Great Britain never has had any desire regarding the holy places but that of administering historic and exact justice between all the great religions and communities concerned," he continued. "The last thing it desires is to deprive any man or community (Continued on Page Four.)

A THOUGHT
A soft answer turneth away wrath; but grievous words stir up anger.—Proverbs 15:1.
HOWEVER it be, it seems to me, 'Tis only noble to be good; Kind hearts are more than crowns, And simple faith than Norman blood.—Alfred Tennyson.

The first shipment by an American business concern to a private business firm in Russia since the war has just been made. It was a cargo of soap sold by Armour & Co. That certainly is an appropriate shipment, for no place in the world is more in need of cleaning up than Russia.

A pump has been ordered by the city council in order to be certain that sufficient water reaches the filter and coagulating basin from the lake. This does not mean there is any danger of a water shortage but that the volume of water in the lake is now so much reduced that the flow by gravity to the plant is not sufficient.

There is plenty of water for all of Jacksonville's needs, and that will be true, even if there is no rain for months to come. Think of what the situation would have been just now in this time of drought if the present water system had not been made a fact. The old time notices of "Don't Sprinkle Your Lawn," would certainly have been in evidence.

It's a somewhat trite subject, but don't let anyone worry you just yet about your winter coal supply. A trip thru Illinois will prove that many industries have enough coal for at least another month and the time for the average householder to put in his fuel supply has not yet arrived. Normally at this season of the year factories are running practically without reserve supplies because of their ability to secure coal in the necessary car lots without the expense of rehandling.
If the mines are started early in August, no coal shortage in "these parts" is at all likely.

If you follow Roger Babson's advice, Mr. Farmer, you will keep your land, especially if it is located where it may sometime be referred to as "suburban" property. Mr. Babson believes that with the development of hard roads and the increasing number of automobiles, that the tendency will be away from city life and to the country. So Mr. Babson believes that farm property will take on increased value.

Complaint is sometimes made that there is too much federal interference with private affairs. That charge may be true in its relationship to certain lines of business. However, at times like the present, when strikes of various kinds interfere with normal business life, a little national government interference is a mighty fine thing.

A child three years of age recently made an address before an assembly of medical men at Atlantic City. The physician father maintained that he began the mental development of this child almost immediately after its birth and that today the infant is merely normal, just what any child of three years should be if properly trained.

Some how we have the feeling that we will know more about the correctness of this theory a few years hence, when the years really tell in just what kind of a man "Willie" has developed.

IF THE FARMER SHOULD STRIKE.

The Dallas Post has this to say in suggesting what might happen if the farmer decided to strike because of dissatisfaction with his pay:

"One of the most oppressed groups in the country today is the agricultural group. Man for man and wage for wage, they are the poorest paid people in the country, and the agricultural industry is beset with the greatest degree of risk.

"Suppose the agricultural group should stand out for compensation that would equal that of railway workers, or the steel workers, or the plumbers, and endeavor to bring the necessary economic pressure to force their point. In other words, proclaim a farm holiday say for a year producing only enough food to supply their immediate households. That would be a pretty howdy-do, wouldn't it?"
"It would bankrupt the rail-

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

THE IDLE SHIPS

By Berton Braley

OUR sides are growing rusty, our paint is cracked and flaked, In winter's cold our plates have chilled, in summer heat they've baked; Our boiler-tubes are clogged with dust, our grates are bleak and cold, The water in our bilges is thick with slime and mould; We fret against our moorings and dream of being free, To buck again the living waves and sail the pounding sea, To seek far distant harbors about the teeming world, With all our boilers roaring, and all our flags unfurled.

MEN made us, men command us, we are but wood and steel, Yet, from the towering masthead down to the stout-built keel, There is a soul within us, a soul that waits the day When we shall slip our moorings and steam upon our way. We do not know the customs that rule the marts of trade, But, oh, we weary of the berths where overlong we've laid! Surely the world must need the freight which we were built to bear;

When shall we wander once again the ocean thoroughfare? O, man, our lord and master, we rot here where we lie, While famine stalks across the world and hungry millions die! Fill up, fill up our bunkers with good black coal or oil, And send us forth upon the sea to do our purposed toil; With wheat and corn and wool and steel within our cargo hold, And all the articles of trade that men have bought and sold, We tug upon our cables, we ships that long to be, Crashing our way across the deep, the broad, eternal sea!

roads, improve all the railroad workers, paralyze all industry and send millions of people to their graves by starvation.
"That would be a farmers' strike to bring 'economic pressure' to compel the other half of the population to come to terms.
"By the same process of 'economic pressure' all the factories of the country might be stopped, all the newspapers, all the schools, all the shops, all the mines, all the hospitals, all the hotels.
"That is the force and logic of the strike as a means of adjusting disputes over compensation or other matters."

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR J. W. KETTLE

Large Company at Centenary Church Honored Memory of Deceased Minister—Buried at Providence Cemetery.

Funeral services for the late Rev. John Wykes Kettle were held at two-thirty yesterday afternoon at Centenary M. E. church. Rev. George L. Losh of Beards-town was the officiating pastor and was assisted by the Dr. F. M. Rule of this city.

The pall bearers at this city were G. W. Slaughter, Roy Dunham, Jesse Glickler, John Moore, George Moore and Osa Johnson, all being members of the official board of New Salem M. E. church of which the Rev. Mr. Kettle was pastor at the time of his death.

Music during the services was rendered by members of the Durbin church choir.

The flowers were cared for by Miss Elizabeth Scott, Miss Beatrice Elzey, Miss Bernadine Oxley, and Miss Juanita Scott.

At the conclusion of the services in this city the body was taken overland to Franklin where interment was made in Providence cemetery.

The bearers at the grave were George Oxley, William Kirby, Thomas Smith, John Oxley and Edgar Oxley.

The services at the grave were in charge of the Masonic fraternity and Dr. Rule offered prayer.

At the service at Centenary church the scripture was read by Rev. Peter Kittel and a prayer was offered by Miss Opperman of the Salvation Army. After a solo had been sung by Mrs. Rees the obituary was read by Dr. Rule. Following a hymn by the choir came the sermon by Rev. Mr. Losh and the benediction by Rev. W. H. Palmer of Bluffs. Dr. Rule gave the following obituary facts:

"John Wykes Kettle, second son of George and Hannah Kettle, was born in the village of Whisandine, England, Aug. 19th, 1861. His parents, one brother Maurice and one only sister Elizabeth preceded him in death, while one, an older brother, William of Southwell, England, beside his wife, Ella L., and daughter Katherine.

As was the custom in his homeland, he attended the service of state church and joined the choir, which many of the cathedrals are famous, at six years of age, singing treble and alto. He was confirmed at 15 years and for many years regularly with the glee club sang carols at the Christmas season. He not only enjoyed singing, but contributed to the pleasure of many with that talent during his active service.

"Both parents and grand parents were staunch people, grand father and great grand father serving as verger for many years in the village of Northborough.
"Without consent of his parents, he went to sea in 1881, following this for seven years or more, during which time he visited many seaports. Mingling with all nationalities, he grew broad in his sympathies and came to appreciate the value of Christian character.

"While living in Los Angeles, California he was attracted to the Salvation Army thru the street services, their singing, though not of the highest order, appealed to him as well as the spirit of brotherliness they seem to bring. On their invitation, he attended deep service and after being under deep conviction for three days, yielded to the strivings of the Holy Spirit, and was as his after life bore witness truly born again. He later joined the Salvation army.

"For years he has held a local preacher's license with the Methodist church and since Sept. 1921 he has been serving New Salem and Baylis circuit, when the love and loyalty of his people have been a constant source of comfort to him in the trail of broken health serving them tenderly in a thousand ways.

GRACE CHURCH DOINGS.

Sunday was one of the warmest days of the summer and of course it effected church activities. The Sunday school enjoyed a special program of music rendered by John Kerns, Dr. Torney and daughter. The school attendance was 216 and the offering amounted to $8.93. Several of the classes held their class sessions on the Academy lawn.
At 10:45 Rev. G. L. Losh, pastor of the Methodist church at Beards-town, occupied the pulpit and preached a stirring sermon that was listened to attentively.
At 6:30 the young people of the Baptist church met with the League members in the union service. Lead-rapper Howard Browning of the Baptist church, Bernice Graham sang a solo.
On the lawn at 7:30 the largest crowd of the season assembled to hear a vigorous sermon preached by Rev. Spooner. Mrs. Charles Pires sang a solo. It was estimated that fully four hundred people were in attendance occupying regular seats and in the cars parked about.

Wednesday evening the Prayer meeting will be in charge of the class of women taught by Mrs. Gates.
Next Sunday morning the Rev. Clyde Booth, pastor of the St. Pauls Methodist church, Decatur, Ill., will occupy the pulpit.

"Shackles of Gold" is a "strong man" play and is said to give Farnum a fine opportunity to display his splendid equipment as an actor, to show the virile stuff of which he is made. He begins as a dock laborer, fights off the gang of an unscrupulous oil magnate, wins a fortune through oil, and then marries a society girl who returns scorn for his love—a girl who marries him because her parents need his money. Despite all this, Farnum battles his way to love, though he ruins himself financially—as well as the man who has tempted his wife—so that the end of the story brings him the happiness he feared never was to be his.

AMATEUR GOLFER DISPLAYS GENIUS

An example of an ingenious amateur golfer could be seen on the Nichols park green yesterday morning early. The ambitious golfer was at the drive for hole two, and had a piece of canvas stretched in front of his tee about eight feet high. It was suspended from a rope stretched between a tree and a telephone pole.

The amateur was practicing driving and after teeing up four or five balls he would start driving them with all his might and main into the canvas.

Certain spots on the canvas represented good and bad placing and the speed of the ball could be judged by the rebound. Many who saw the contrivance expressed their admiration for the ingenious amateur. Several more canvases will probably put in their appearance at the park, in back yards and other possible places.

PAINS SO BAD WOULD GO TO BED

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work all day long now at my sicktime. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. A. H. GARLAND, 28 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It surely has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."—Mrs. MARY DALE, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.

The miners decided not to mine any coal this summer. That would produce a shortage this winter and, as a matter of fact, the mine owners and operators were satisfied to have it that way.

Now the President invites them to get together and of course they will. What's the use anyway? It all means that you will have higher priced coal. Now that this is attended to, you may save a few dimes or dollars to help pay for the coal and we're trying to help.

REPARATIONS AND ALLIED DEBTS TO BE TAKEN UP NOW

Allies Finally Convinced United States Will Not Confer

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, July 24—General consideration of allied debts in their relation to the reparations question now seems to be assured for the forthcoming meeting of the representatives of the allies in London. This was the conviction expressed today in reparations circles.

The allies having determined conclusively that the United States under no circumstances purposes to be drawn into a conference in which debt cancellations is to be the chief topic of the allied governments have decided to go ahead independently.

U. S. Attitude
Hope was expressed today that any economic improvement which the government experts think would result for even a partial revision of debts and a revision in the total of the indemnities to be paid by Germany would not be ignored by the American government, if, several years hence, the American government reconsidered its attitude toward its European debtors.

and the French official comment to the effect that no "formal" proposals have been made looking to a cancellation of the French debt in return for a reduction in the indemnity, it is generally admitted in reparations and official circles that such a general scheme has been the subject of informal discussions both inside and outside the reparations commission for several weeks and that it unquestionably will constitute part of the discussions in London.

PEACE TREATY MANDATES ARE NOW APPROVED

of rights which centuries of history and sacred traditions have given him.

Protect Old Rights
"Our solitary wish is that all these ancient rights shall be carried on with decency, order and scrupulous care."

"Article 14 of the mandate accords full security that the policy always favored by the British government in the treatment of subject races shall be observed." M. Viviani, who arrested immediate attention by his oratory and animated gestures, begged the newspapers to believe that the secret sittings of the council during the past week were in the interest of an amicable and speedy solution of the many difficult and delicate problems which could not be settled otherwise.

League's Accomplishments
He reviewed the accomplishments of the league since its creation three years ago, enumerating the establishment of the permanent court of international justice and important committees on disarmament, health and scientific subjects. The league, he declared, had settled many troubles and disputes which would have taken the courts or the parliaments much longer to solve.

There were no serious difficulties between France and Italy regarding the mandates, said M. Viviani.

Monsieur Cerretti, representing the vatican, who was denied a hearing by the council on the vatican's claims respecting the holy shrines in Asia, listened with rapid attention to the Earl of Balfour's promises that the sacred traditions of all interests in Palestine would be preserved.

WORK BEGUN ON OLYMPIC STADIUM

(By The Associated Press)
COLOMBES STADIUM, Paris, July 24—Work on the erection of the stadium at Colombes, in which the 1924 Olympic games will be held was commenced today. The architect expect to have the 500 meter track ready for the athletes to begin their preparation next October.

The stands will have a capacity of 60,000 and will enclose a regulation rugby and football field. The stadium will be finished April 1925.

"You have already opened the 1924 Olympic games," said Gaston Vidal, under secretary of state for sports to The Associated Press, "You filed the first dispatch from the stadium."

WHITE HALL MAN GETS ANONYMOUS LETTER

Justice E. L. Wendell Receives Letter of Threatening Nature From Anonymous Source—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, July 24.—Justice E. L. Wendell received an anonymous communication Saturday of a threatening nature. The writer stated that if ever there is a riot in White Hall, the first man that the laboring class would beat up would be the said Justice of the peace. Since taking up the duties of Justice of the peace last May, Justice Wendell has made it very plain to law-defiers that the law would not be made a farce in his court. He has undertaken a number of cases for debt against parties whose earnings were sufficient to enable them to pay their obligations, and whose attitude of jest toward such claims was changed to a more serious matter under the judicial machinations of the aforesaid Justice. The same tactics are used by Justice Wendell in criminal cases, it being something new for an offender to be lodged in the county jail in default of payment of a fine in the court of Justice Wendell. "The supreme court of White Hall." An instance of the amount of business in this court is reflected in the fact that today twenty debt cases were docketed.

Asked about the anonymous letter and its contents, Justice Wendell stated: "The letter contained many false statements, among which was that I was not elected, but appointed. At the township election last April I received the second largest vote of any of the township officers. I shall not falter in the enforcement of law and the application of justice in all cases coming before me because of any cowardly wretch who has not the courage and manhood to sign the letter. Such people are the lowest scoundrels of the infernal regions."

The letter was a lengthy one but Justice Wendell had consigned it to the scrap heap before the reporter got next.

White Hall's eminence in the live stock world does not abate, not even in the matter of poultry and egg production. With the progress of the state egg-laying contest at Quincy and Murphysboro, Ward L. Hull continues to forge to the front with his pen of five white leghorn hens at Murphysboro. He was awarded first at Murphysboro for June, his total being 113 eggs, while the first at Quincy had 112 eggs. This gives him a total of 644 eggs in the eight months that the contest has been in progress, with four months to run. He gained 44 eggs last month on first place, and is within 44 eggs of first place. In the American and English classes the high production in June was 94 at Murphysboro and 87 at Quincy. Mr. Hull now stands second in the light breed totals.

The first picnic gathering of the season on Gregory Park was that of the Daughters of Faith last Friday, at which 25 young women constituted a delightful gathering. This organization constitutes Mrs. Mary Thurman's Class of the First Baptist Sunday school.

Chicago, July 24.—Harry Weiner, 67, underwent an operation for the renewing of youth today when Dr. Benjamin H. Breakstone made a partial removal of parathyroid glands. A rejuvenation of the interstitial gland will result according to the doctor. In the much discussed varanoff method of rejuvenation, the interstitial gland is removed and human or monkey glands are substituted. In the steinoh method employed by Dr. Breakstone, natural causes are depended upon for the renewing of youth.

Weiner's bride of a few days visited him at the hospital soon after the operation. She is 37.

CLOSING OF STEEL PLANTS IS SEEN

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 24—The wholesale closing of steel plants thruout the country and especially those in the east which heretofore have not been affected by fuel shortage, will result if the coal strike is not settled before August, the head of a large steel corporation declared today.

Further falling off of operations among steel plants caused grave concern at their New York corporation headquarters. Officials of Bethlehem Steel announced they had banked fires and discontinued production at two of their largest furnaces with the result loss of employment of hundreds of men. Every plant in the east soon will feel the full effect of the coal strike it was declared.

OBTAIN CLOSING FOUR IOWA MINES

(By The Associated Press)
DES MOINES, Iowa, July 24—Headed by Thomas Reed, traveling auditor for the United Mine Workers, 300 striking miners left Des Moines this afternoon for Ford, Iowa, and succeeded in persuading the operators of four non-union mines to close down.

This is the third time Des Moines miners have visited the Ford mines and succeeded in persuading the operators to close during the strike. In each instance the striking miners say the operators opened again within a few days.

Several strikers warned the operators and non-union miners that this was the last time that they intended to visit them and engage in friendly negotiations.

Two of them are strip mines.

OLE COMMUNITY IS ENDANGERED BY MOONSHINE GANG

State and Federal Authorities Appealed to For Aid

(By The Associated Press)
MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 24.—Terrorized they said by moonshiners overrunning the district of Kingsdale, 40 miles south of Duluth, today appealed to state and federal authorities for aid, declaring their village has become the center of organized liquor dealings extending out Minnesota.

A delegation headed by Charles R. Grace, of Kingsdale, whose hotel was mysteriously dynamited July 17, called on Governor Preus in St. Paul and asked his aid. Governor Preus referred them to S. B. Quale, federal prohibition agent for Minnesota.

"The government will cooperate to the fullest extent to wipe out the moonshiners," Mr. Quale said. "If necessary armed forces will be sent in."

Village Terrorized
The village has been terrorized by moonshiners since last fall, the delegation reported. Mr. Grace told of a raid last winter when 12 armed men rode thru the streets, shooting out windows and firing at people in the streets. They never were captured. Later, he said, there were wild dances and liquor orgies, with fights constantly occurring.

There are more than 20 large stills operating constantly, just across the Tamarack river in Wisconsin, members of the delegation charged.

Hotel Dynamited
Before the moonshiners dynamited the Grace Hotel last week, they manhandled the railroad station agent and bound him so he could not send out any word of the dynamiting. The town has no telephone.

"I have been verbally threatened several times," Mr. Grace told Mr. Quale, "and believe that the dynamiters were seeking vengeance for the efforts of myself and others to stamp out the liquor traffic."

People are moving away from Kingsdale, because they fear the moonshiners. Settlers are afraid to move into the county.

After a Night Prowler
The police received several calls from people living near the corner of Walnut street and North Prairie street Sunday night. It was reported that a stranger man had been seen snooping around the neighborhood. Ignatius Cicero of 933 North Prairie street was one of those to complain.

Several nights recently a prowler has disturbed Mr. Cicero's home and Saturday night thirty young chicks were stolen from his chicken yard. He has a shot gun ready to use in case of any future visits.

EMERGENCY SERVICE GIVEN IN STRIKE TIME

Financial Review Gives Interesting Facts About Work of German Technical Emergency Service.

The National City bank of New York City in its recent weekly review with reference to business makes reference to the technical emergency service which was organized in Germany and gives some facts about the work that was accomplished thru this organized effort.

An interesting account is given of the German Technical Service and the invaluable work which it did in the railroad strike of last February.

The Technical Emergency Service is an organization composed of volunteers protected by and operating under the jurisdiction of the German Ministry of the Interior. Its origin dates back to the disorderly period which followed the end of the war and the German revolution. It was organized by men who placed the welfare of the nation above party politics and labor disputes, and includes in its ranks, men who have held high position in official life, university professors, technical educators, students, merchants, lawyers and other professional men, former army officers, and sober-minded laboring men.

The conditions created in Berlin by the railroad strike of February are thus described by the "Transatlantic Trade" editorial: As far as Berlin was concerned, the railroad strike was intensified by the strike of the city's employees, which left Berlin without water, gas and electricity. A cold wave aggravated the situation.

Physicians in Despair
Lack of heat, light and water drove the city's physicians and hospital doctors to despair. It was impossible to perform even the most necessary operations. It is difficult to give a picture of the misery that prevailed in the children's hospitals and especially in the infant departments.

Illustrative of the damage caused was the condition of hundreds of locomotives at the end of the strike. Under ordinary circumstances roundhouses are heated, thus protecting locomotives. The strikers ran their machines in and left them in unheated houses where the water in the boilers and tubes froze. Snow and ice made it impossible to operate switches and the lack of electric current put the signal system out of commission. Berlin at night was pitch dark.

This was the situation when President Ebert called upon the Technical Emergency Service. The article says:

Three hours after a crew of the service had taken charge of the railroad yards, three locomotives were put under steam and placed at the disposal of the station master of the Lehrter Station. Twenty-four hours later three tracks, including all switches and signal systems, were cleared and a regular time table service was established between Berlin and Wittenberg, located half way on the line Berlin-Hamburg. In the meantime, the Emergency Service men of Hamburg had worked their way down to Wittenberg which completed the connection Hamburg-Berlin. Thus a regular freight and passenger service, even if limited, was established by non-railroad men 24 hours after the outbreak of the strike.

Remarkable Work
Considering the fact that the Emergency Service did not ask assistance from those strike-breakers who were willing to work in spite of the strike order, the work accomplished by the Service is remarkable. But rescuing the railroad service from complete standstill, and even ruin, was not the only activity of these volunteers. Water stations and electric plants were put into commission one after another, and gradually gas plants in various parts of the city became useful utilities. All this activity was embarrassing to strike leaders and political wire pullers who had characterized the Technical Emergency Service as an organization only capable of keeping low fires under boilers and thawing out frozen engines.

Thus it happened that the Technical Emergency Service succeeded in establishing its value as a national asset in times of great national danger. Its work in connection with the last strike also furnishes highly important lessons for other nations in solving similar labor troubles.

"This German organization shows what will have to be done in all countries to meet the unsocial group organizations which attempt to choke society to its knees. There is no reason in the theory that merely because railroad service is continuous and cannot be interrupted without great damage to the community, railroad employees shall have a great advantage in bargaining for their compensation over farmers and other people whose labors are just as necessary, but who have not the same organized power to inflict injury."

FRYMAN SHUTS OUT MURRAYVILLE 3 TO 0

Alsey Pitcher Holds Hard Hitting Murrayville Aggregation to Four Singles—Indees Play Errorless Ball.

With Fryman pitching big league ball the Indees shut out Murrayville at South Side park, Sunday, the final score being 3 to 0.

Fryman had everything that a pitcher should have, speed, curves and control. While he walked, three men none of the walks resulted disastrously. He struckout eleven men, every man on the visiting team except Doyle and Warren Wright fanning one or more times.

Fanning pitched for Murrayville also hurled a good game. He also allowed four singles, walked one and struckout eight. However, his defense cracked three different times and in each instance the Indees put over a run.

It was a game worth going a long way to see and both teams tried hard all the time. Murrayville in particular did hard. Until the last man was out the visitors worked with might and main to solve Fryman's delivery but were unable to do so.

Only twice during the game did Murrayville get a man as far as third base. In the second inning Warren Wright and Fanning poked out Texas Leaguers, the first hits made off Fryman. However, Fryman tightened up and struckout Denney, and Burkery was out Better to Wheeler.

Again in the fourth Ruble and Doyle singled in succession with no one out. With Ruble on third and Doyle on second, Lonergan and J. Wright struckout and Christopher made a fine running catch of Warren Wright's long fly close to the left field foul line for the third out. Thereafter Fryman did not allow a safety.

In the eighth he got wild after oneman was out and walked two men but Wheeler nipped Fanning at third on Burkery's hopper and Ruble fled to Bettern.

Christopher's catch off Warren Wright was the fielding feature of the game altho the entire Indee team did excellent work when the opportunity offered.

J. Wright's two base muff of Kohloff's high fly in the first inning and Christopher's single off of Fanning's glove gave the locals their first run. An error by Lonergan, Clark's stolen base and Kohloff's single game them another in the fifth. Christopher's single and steal, a fielder's choice and an error brought over the last run in the eighth. JOHNSON DOES NOT APPROVE OF TRADE

American League Head Says Trading of Players in Mid-Season Must Be Stopped—Calls Meeting of All Club Owners.

CHICAGO, July 24—President Ban Johnson of the American League tonight declared the deal which sent Joe Dugan, star third baseman of the Boston Americans to the New York Yankees was a "regrettable" transaction, and that trades of this character in mid-season must be discouraged and legislated against.

The Yankees acquired Dugan and Elmer Smith, a hard hitting outfielder, in exchange for Elmer Miller, an outfielder; John Mitchell, a substitute shortstop; Wilson Fewster, an outfielder, and a pitcher to be selected later.

"A point has been reached where the public regards with aversion and apprehension any deal for players between the Boston and New York clubs," President Johnson said. "The New York club may secure temporary relief in the acquisition of Dugan and Smith, but they will not prove materially helpful to the building up of the team."

"Dugan is an extremely temperamental player and in that end may prove a liability rather than an asset. Smith is a splendid character but an ordinary fielder and fair hitter. Players secured by Boston may help the club to a moderate degree."

President Johnson disclosed that Clark Griffith of Washington had attempted to have legislation passed in the American League prohibiting sales of players after July 1, except by the waiver route, but that the New York owners prevailed upon him to withdraw the resolution. The two major leagues, by agreement then fixed August 1, as the date of a meeting of the club owners to be held here August 27. Question involving the draft and the nature of the trophy to be awarded the most valuable players in the American League will be among the issues discussed. The meeting was not called as a result of New York-Boston deal, but legislation prohibiting mid-season trades probably will be discussed President Johnson said.

ANOTHER DROP IN THE WHEAT MARKET

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The new winter crop being offered in good volume and with speculative buying nearly non-existent, wheat underwent a decided fall in value today, September and December touching the lowest prices of the season. The market closed unsettled at 1 cent to 3/4¢ not declined. September $1.07 1/2 to $1.07 3/4, Corn 1 1/4 to 1 1/2, and oats 3/4 to 3/8. In provisions the outcome varied from a setback of 1/16 to a shade advance.

Primary receipts of wheat totalling 3,489,000 bushels appeared to be much of a burden for the merchandising trade to carry readily without assistance.
In particular, the demand from export interests, aitho on a liberal scale and with hedging pressure sufficient to offset hedging pressure, especially selling for Kansas City account. Enough buying on the part of shorts developed to help cause a fair recovery from the day's lowest prices. An extreme drop of five cents a bushel was witnessed in the July delivery,
the talk of dealings were in September and December.

Export purchasing of wheat was estimated at 1,000,000 bushels. Arrivals of wheat in Chicago today amounted to 660 carloads. Kansas City had 931 and Omaha 474, all showing large increases over arrivals a week ago. Furthermore, bullish figures on the yield in Kansas were current, and the weather in the spring crop territory was reported as making wheat mature fast.

Corn and oats as well as wheat were depressed by large receipts and like wheat descended to new low record prices for the season.
Provisions sold off with grain,
notwithstanding higher quotations on hogs.

B. E. Hay was a city arrival from Springfield yesterday.

LABOR SITUATION HITS STOCK MARKET

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The progressively reactionary tone of today's stock market clearly indicated that greater consideration was given by traders and the public to adverse factors, notably the coal and railroad strikes.

This was emphasized in despatches from western centers which declared that labor troubles were making increased inroads upon general business inroads upon general business altho railroad tonnage held close to the preceding week's level.
The confidence recently shown by investors at interior points also seemed on the wane.

Prices held fairly steady at the outset, but soon became unsettled on renewed selling of motors and their subsidiaries.

Reversals later encompassed
the oils and many unclassified specialties finally extending to railroads. Weakness among the motors was again due chiefly to Pierce-Arrow common and preferred,
where additional severe losses were attended by more circumstantial reports regarding the company's financial standing.

Chandler was under constant pressure with Studebaker and the market for all motors was thin.

Baldwin and Studebaker were the targets, showing net losses of 2 1/2 and 2 3/4 points, respectively with U. S. Steel below par. Sales amounted to $35,000,000.

Foreign exchanges were firm on small dealings, sterling rising to within a fraction of last week's best.

At the close, call loans eased from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent.

The activity and strength of Liberty issues again made dealings in the bond market noteworthy. New maximums were made by the 3 1/2s at $101.80;
100s 4s at $101.30; Second 4s at $100.80; Second 4 1/2s at $101 and Fourth 4 1/2s at $101.65.

Total bond sales (par value)
aggregated $12,421,000.

CITY COUNCIL BUYS NEW PUMP FOR PLANT

Is Needed Now That Lake Is Lowered—Will Advertise More Sidewalk Work.

At the session of the city council last night the water committee was authorized to immediately purchase a pump for the forcing of water from the lake into the coagulating basin. When water is high in the lake it flows by gravitation, but now the use of the pump is necessary. When the plant was built all the piping for this pump equipment was included but the purchase of the pump was postponed until such a time as it might be needed.

The council met in regular session with Alderman Rowe presiding as mayor pro tem. City Clerk Scott called the roll showing the others present were Aldermen Sorrells, Ehnie, Lonergan, Flynn and McGinnis.

A bid was received from Simeon Fernandes for $370 for the rebuilding of the South Diamond street culvert and one for $176.50 for certain work on Hardin avenue, and these were referred to the public improvement committee.

The city clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for sidewalks in certain localities where the walks have been ordered by ordinance.

A complaint was filed by M. Duffy and others with reference to a lot in the rear of 225 East State street. It is stated that dead rats and refuse matter make this a dangerous lot. The council by motion declared it a nuisance and Dr. Brokaw, health commissioner, thus has authority to proceed with the necessary clean up.

Dr. Brokaw stated that there are a number of other places in the business district that are practically as bad as the one complained of, but that he as commissioner does not have authority to compel the abatement of the nuisances without specific action on the part of the council. The commissioner explained that quite often people complain about unsatisfactory conditions but do not want their names used and so the complaints are without avail.

Alderman Lonergan brought to attention the need for an additional pump at the water plant and the situation was explained by Engineer Caldwell and Mr. Stoldt, superintendent of the plant. The pump is to be ordered immediately from a Quincy manufacturer.

The side walks for which bids are to be asked are on West Reid street, North Diamond, North Fayette, West Independence avenue, Ashland avenue and Cox street.

The change of venue was granted from Squire Opperman's court to that of Justice Bayha. The state based their argument of continuance on the absence of the material witness, Reynolds, who is charged with the theft of a set of buggy wheels and thefts from a vehicle owned by Miss May Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rogerson and Misses Carrie and Margaret of Alton arrived in the city yesterday on their way to Wilcox lake for an outing.

ANOTHER OLD TIME IMPLEMENT

This time it is a "jumper" and it was used by John Dodsworth of Lynnville. Mr. Dodsworth says it was a contrivance made to cover corn after it had been dropped. It was handled and constructed somewhat after the fashion of the bull tongue. It was so constructed as to cover the dropped corn and jump over the rest of the ground but was not used much.

Another implement was a hand corn planter. It was a box about four inches square at the end and 30 to 35 inches long. It had a handle on top and when filled with corn it had mechanism by which a man could go along, stick the end down at the proper place and drop and cover a hill of corn at the same time. A good many of them were used.

GRAIN MARKETS IN SHARP DECLINE

Local Elevators Offered 92 Cents for Wheat Monday—Chicago Comment Blames "Government Interference."

Grain markets have shown a continued downward tendency during the recent days and the decline has been sharp for both cash and future markets. The low point of the season was reached yesterday and grain men say it will not be surprising if the figures are still lower.

Monday local elevators were offering 92¢ for wheat, as that was the highest price that the Chicago market would justify. Most elevator men are still expecting trouble in securing a sufficient number of cars for the movement of grain.

The Chicago Post specializes on financial and market news and in the Saturday issue credits a representative of a prominent commission firm with the statement that too much government supervision of business is responsible for unfavorable market conditions. This was the paragraph the Post used on this subject:

"Confidence in the market has been destroyed largely because the government, regarding the farmers as a favored class, insists on supervising, controlling and regulating the markets for farm products and the marketing machinery," said Halburd-Warren-Chandler. "The control of the business institutions as now practiced by our government thru the exercise of police power is an invasion of individual rights which goes far beyond anything intended by the constitution of the United States, and in the end will destroy the prosperity of all classes. The farmer and the laboring man who placidly accept special class legislation for themselves will find that they are nursing an adder which in time will sting and perhaps destroy them."

A FORMER STUDENT

E. E. Watt, a prominent business man of Winchester, was in the city yesterday on business. The gentleman was a student at the, then, Jacksonville business college when the writer was a teacher and the two had some pleasant things to recall. Mr. Watt boarded with the family of Dr. M. L. Read on West Morgan street along with G. U. Tall, teacher of penmanship.

Prof. Crampton was then the proprietor of the college which had a good list of students. Of those who attended when the writer was a teacher were S. A. Fairbank and Ottowa McAllister of this city are alive and Robert Ranson, west of the city and Mr. Watt.

Among those who have passed away are Marshall Green, E. L. McDonald, J. Edmonson, George W. Moore of Griggsville, A. D. Richardson of Cass county, Wilson Coulter, Henry Washington, R. D. Russel and others. Mr. Watt and the writer really remembered the arrival one afternoon of a live wire from Fulton county. He wasn't exactly polished but he had plenty of vim and energy and was a good teacher. He was G. W. Brown.
